

ATC Closes Investigation on The Bulldog

ATC Commissioner Troy Hebert released his office's investigation of the Bulldog Bar concerning the recent alcohol related fatality of a bicyclist in Baton Rouge.

“We, at ATC, have a standing policy to investigate alcohol-related fatalities that stem from businesses we regulate” said Commissioner Hebert. “At this time we have found no evidence that shows that the Bulldog acted improperly.”

Link to WBRZ's Online News Story

For further information please contact:

Commissioner Troy Hebert
225-925-4054